Foreword

The past is ours. The future hers.
The present--Ah, There's the rub.
'Tis not what we are or what we have
But what we do that tells.
She sends us forth, with us to rise,
'Tis her fond hope, maternal trust.
If faithful to our Alma Mater,
Our name and hers unblamed shall live.
Approving time shall consecrate and give
To those who follow after, the same just precepts,
Our example and a like immortal prize,
To which with loving care she helped us rise.

DEDICATED . . .

To you—our parents, whose patience and perseverance have guided us through our high school years. As an expression of our gratitude and in sincere appreciation for the help and devotion of our mothers and fathers we proudly dedicate the 1952 JAGUAR.

The Student Council Association of Falls Church High has endeavored to serve the student body and to work constantly for the welfare of all.

Under the leadership of Rashid Abdu, many outstanding activities have been sponsored this year. Among these are the savings bond program, the magazine drive, the adoption of a workable honor system, the annual Sweetheart Dance, and the publication of the student handbook to familiarize old and new students alike with the high school.

An added asset to the Council this year has been the Senate, organized to expedite the work of the Student Council.

The Student Council Association has been an integral part of the life at Falls Church High School this year and through it, a genuine spirit of cooperation has been encouraged.

Through a satin draped heart the Court and Queens moved in procession to the music of "Sweethearts," sung by Miss Marjorie Green.

The Sweetheart Dance, long since a tradition at Falls Church, was well attended by both students and alumni.

The Elizabeth Ann Clem Chapter, an active chapter in the county, affords to some worthy Senior a scholarship of $100 for outstanding work. This organization is open to only Juniors and Seniors who have grades of "G" or above and who have at least ten activity points. Membership in the National Honor Society is one of the highest honors a student can attain while in high school.

Mrs. Harriet Hurt has been with the National Honor Society from the beginning seven years ago. ## KEY CLUB

The Key Club is a Junior Service Organization made up of the key boys in the high school. Boys from Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes by the principal's selection and under the sponsorship and assistance of the Kiwanis Club, render service to the high school.

The Key Club, like the Kiwanis, is based upon the principles of service. It capitalizes, for constructive school service, the fellowship of a group of boys who meet together once a week. It develops friendship and encourages leadership. It seeks to build better schools and communities through intelligent interest, active training and unselfish leadership.

Although one of the newest clubs in this school, it has already made a name for itself through its active participation in building the character and shaping the future of Falls Church High School.

NATIONAL JUNIOR HONOR SOCIETY

The aim of the Junior Honor Society is to help increase scholastic standards, and to be of service to the school.

ACTION SHOTS

JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL

First row: McCarter, Green, Roberts, Cook, Hodges, Dodson, Rowe, Hobbs, Hoy, Fay, Penn.

Second row: Coach Lyons, Stein, Morrison, Templeman, Anderson, J. Cooper, Harrington, Parish, Walker, D. Cooper, Gray, Thomas.

Third row: Reeves, Fahey, Jones, Mills.

Fourth row: Bass, Gilmore, D. Wood, Glover, Taylor, E. Wood, Wingo, Intolubbe, Freed, Nash.

Next year's Jaguars should really have something to look forward to, with this year's edition of the Little Jaguars whipping all opponents except Herndon's Varsity and becoming Fairfax County champions. Key players in posting the 4-1-1 record were Jones, Cook, Hobbs, Bass, F. Hoy, Hodges, D. Taylor, Green, Hockman, McCarter, Gilmore, and Fay.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Under new coach Art Valotto, the Jaguar hoopsters had a mediocre season, at best. They did, however, manage to conquer their arch-rival Fairfax, an accomplishment which their predecessors for the last two years had not been able to achieve. Several boys, Ken Eybers, Palmer Rutherford, Dick Alley, Hank Taylor, and Bill Dick, gained valuable experience which, coupled with this year's fine Junior Varsity crop, might provide material for a better record next season.

Second row: Bill Guiffre, manager; Dave Taylor, Roger Walker, Rolly Belknapp, Peter Green, Ted Rentz, Mr. Campbell, coach.

Third row: Tony Wilson, Lauren Dick, Barry Hall, Sandy Luppens.

This year's crop of Junior Varsity basketceers played a good brand of ball by anybody's standards. Thrust into Group I competition for the first time, and under a new coach, Bruce Campbell, the boys ended with a very respectable record of ten wins and six losses. Nearly thwarted in mid-season by the loss of Dave Frye and John Mather, Coach Campbell came up with some able replacements in Dave Taylor and Roger Walker. Led by such stalwarts as high scoring Nye Bemis and Mike Williamson, and aided by playmakers John Mather, Dave Frye, Dave Taylor, Richard Hunt, Roger Walker, and Rolly Belknapp, they came up with creditable wins over Fairfax, Mount Vernon, Friends, and Woodward Prep.

Third row: Mr. Linger, Neilsen, Auringer, Miller, Harper, Denham, Templeman, Scott, Greco, Longacre, McCrary, Mr. Bernard.

Fourth row: Greco, Gilmore, McIntire, Williamson, Bröse, Guiffre, Cheney, Altizer, Smallwood, Robey.

The Falls Church track team under Coach Carter Linger posted a five won, three lost record in 1951. They have promise of doing even better this season with Wayne Richey and John Harper returning for the hurdles, Bill Hogan in the 100-yard dash, and Pete McCrary in the 880. Last year these boys set new school records in their events. This year, with the addition of Ken Eybers in the high jump and the help of assistant coaches George Bernard and Bill Little, the team should be somewhat improved.

A veteran Jaguarette squad came through the 1951-52 basketball season possessors of a 9-0 record. Since this year's team has the honor of being the first undefeated one in Falls Church High history, the girls and their coach are to be congratulated.

The Jaguarettes managed to maintain a 47 point average per game throughout the season. Their highest scoring contests were with Leesburg and George Washington, 60 points in each game. Probably the best played game of the season came against Fairfax as the girls finally downed their traditional rivals.

First row: Betsy Sullivan, Kay Virden, Gwen Hockman, Mary Lou Carroll, Shirley Fortier, Mary Lu Field, Margie Small.

Second row: Mrs. Bernice Lilly, Diane Allman, Shirley Shelton, Jane Longanecker, Ruth Haines, Electa Larcombe.

With seven members of last year's successful squad remaining, the Varsity Jagualettes are looking forward to another winning season. Returning to a place on the team are Ruth Haines, Shirley Shelton (captain), Mary Lu Field, Jane Longanecker (co-captain), Electa Larcombe, Gwen Hockman, and Mary Lou Carroll. Another veteran from the 1950 season is Betsy Sullivan. Newcomers who are doing a fine job in their first season of varsity softball are Kay Virden, Shirley Fortier, Margie Small, and Diane Allman.

Coached by Mrs. Bernice Lilly, the team has played three games up to this writing and have earned victories over Osbourn and George Mason. Downed by Fairfax in their third contest, the girls are looking forward to meeting them again later in the season.

New uniforms for the team were provided this year through the efforts of the girls' gym classes.

The Bishop's Mantle is a play about an Episcopal rector, Hilary Laurens, in the very fashionable parish of St. Matthews. He has difficulties from the beginning. He tries to alleviate the sufferings of the tenement people and incurs the wrath of Mr. Alvord, his senior vestryman, who owns the tenements. Hettie Breckenridge, one of St. Matthews' largest contributors, disapproves of Hil's love for Lex McColly.

Hastings, the sexton, and Miss Mowbray, Hil's secretary, contribute moral and physical support to Hil's campaign for social equality in his parish. Aunt Samantha, J. V. Dunn, Maudie Dunn, Dick Laurens, Mrs. Reed and Mary McComb all do their part in helping Hilary become a success.

 VIRGINIA GRILLE, Student Director

After four weeks of concentrated effort the Junior play, "Cheaper by the Dozen," was given to a large audience on November 16 and 17 at the Madison School auditorium. The plot was based upon the lives of an actual family during the early 1920's. It was the story of the Gilbreth family, consisting of twelve plus two in their trials and tribulations in belonging to a family, whose object in life was to accomplish everything in its power. Fred Boes gave a remarkable portrayal of the very precise father, Mr. Gilbreth. However, it wouldn't have been a success without the incomparable direction of Mrs. Harriet Hurt. It was a lot of hard work but the cast will never forget the wonderful time they had giving the play, even though the path was full of stones.

This school year marks the first year that the High School P.-T.A. has been organizationally separate from the Falls Church Parent-Teacher Association. The meetings, held regularly on the third Monday each month, are planned to acquaint parents with the programs, activities, problems, and needs of the school, and to provide an opportunity for parents and teachers to meet informally in discussion of ways by which school and home can work together in providing more opportunities for growth, guidance, and education of all the students. The Association sponsored the High School Variety Show in which both students and professional performers participated. Funds from this and other activities are used to give support to school activities recommended by the faculty and approved by the association.

Secretary	_____	Mrs. Edward Greco

The Band Aides were organized in the fall of 1950 for the purpose of giving moral and financial support to the band. Uniforms and a sousaphone were purchased last year and several instruments this year. In order to finance these projects, the group sponsored several paper drives, a dance, three dinners, a tea and a tag-day. Personal contributions have also helped finance the band.
